

Here are some things that your child should be doing by the age of 30 months:

- ☐ knows the meaning of many descriptive words- like 'big', 'little', 'more' '
- ☐ begins to add endings to words- like 'running', 'balls', mommy's hat'
- ☐ says 350 words or more and earns new words each week
- ☐ uses action words- like 'eat', 'sleeping', 'playing'
- ☐ uses easy sounds at the start and end of simple words
- ☐ tries to say words that have 2 to 3 parts:
'banana' may sound like 'nana'
'water' may sound like 'wawa'
- ☐ takes short turns with other children but may still have trouble sharing
- ☐ shows concern when others are hurt or sad
- ☐ recalls and understands stories and songs that they know well
- ☐ pretend play has many steps
(feeds a doll and puts her to sleep, fills toy car with gas and drives away)
